

SYNERGY

PARTNERS

ARISE Carleton University, Ottawa Building Enclosure Engineering

Montgomery Sisam Architects

Synergy was initially retained to provide design advice to control corrosion between the proposed Muntz cladding and the adjacent cladding supports and stick-built curtain wall systems.

Synergy was subsequently asked to provide advice to improve construction sequencing and detailing to improve overall building enclosure performance and durability. Synergy reviewed building enclosure construction and provided remedial repair direction where construction was not in accordance with project details.